On Valentine’s Day of this year, I was followed on twitter by Sykkuno.

I thought it was amazing that such a big content creator even knew I existed, let alone followed me on social media. He had been my role model and someone I looked up to for a long time, ever since my days in high school.

However, what I learned about Sykkuno after that day would make me regret my decision.

Sykkuno is not the kind, soft-spoken character you see on stream. He is a serial cheater, liar, and manipulator who uses his status to get what he wants from as many women as possible, more specifically, ones who are smaller or up and coming content creators, knowing that he can take advantage of them.

After confiding in many others that have had similar experiences with Sykkuno, I realized that this was not an isolated incident, in fact, it was something that had been going on for multiple years.
He always made sure to cover his tracks and never left a paper trail significant enough for someone to make this public, but now, this has all changed.
These are serious allegations and I fully understand that this should not be treated lightly.

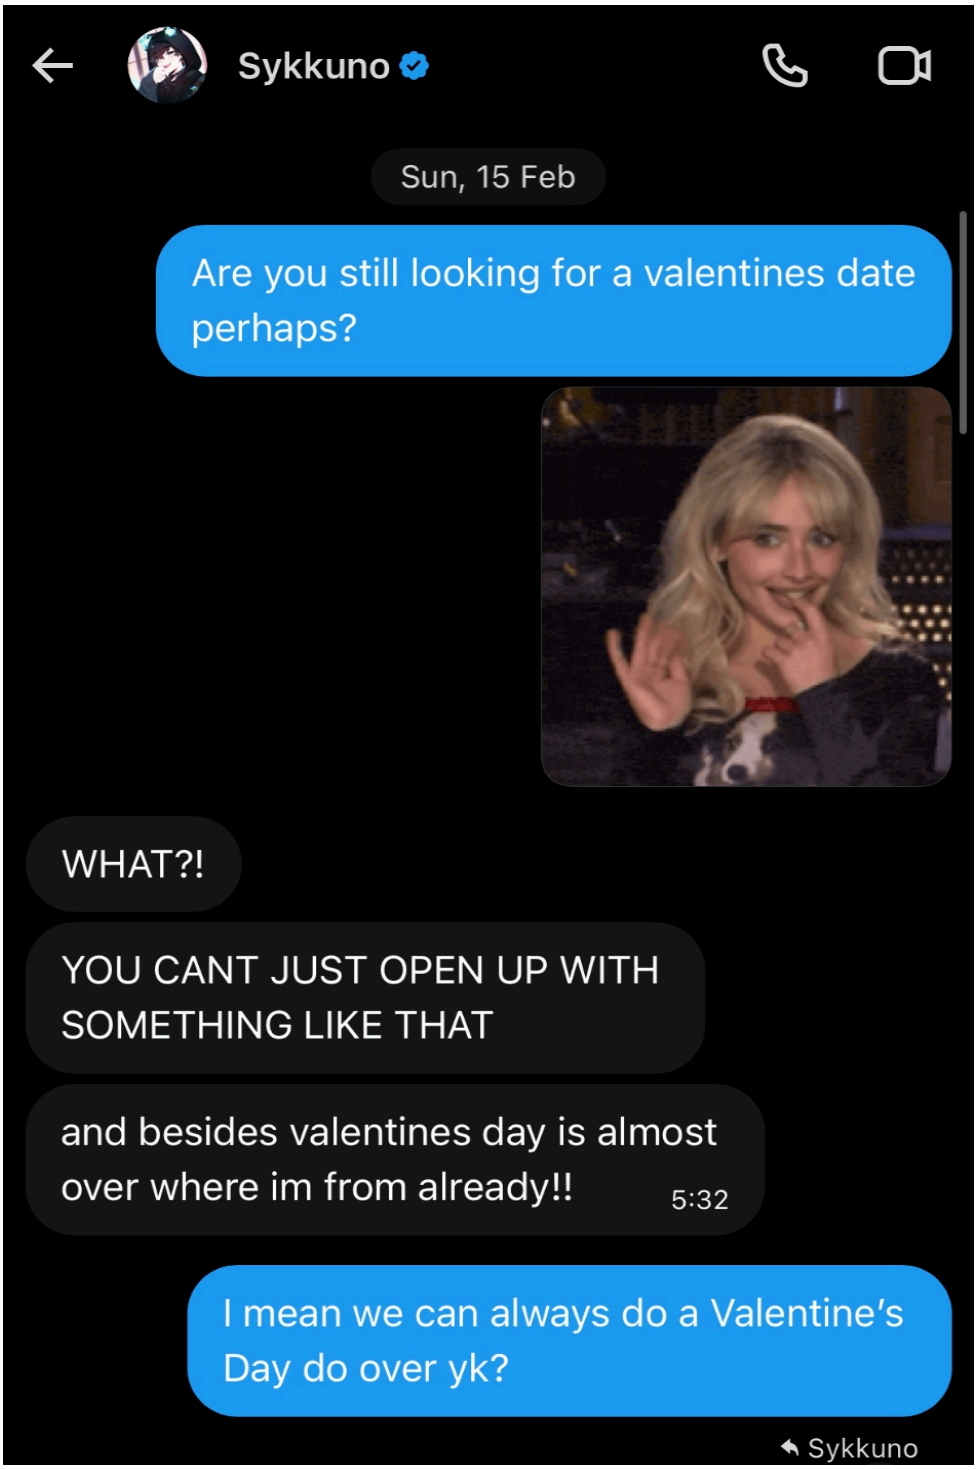
I urge all other content creators who have been personally affected by Sykkuno’s behavior to not remain silent as I believe that there is strength in numbers.

This document will not only include proof from me, but from another victim who has given me her consent as well.

Below, you will find evidence that will expose his calculated pattern of love bombing and manipulation, as well as a recording of a voice call where he explicitly admits to all his wrong-doings, everything.

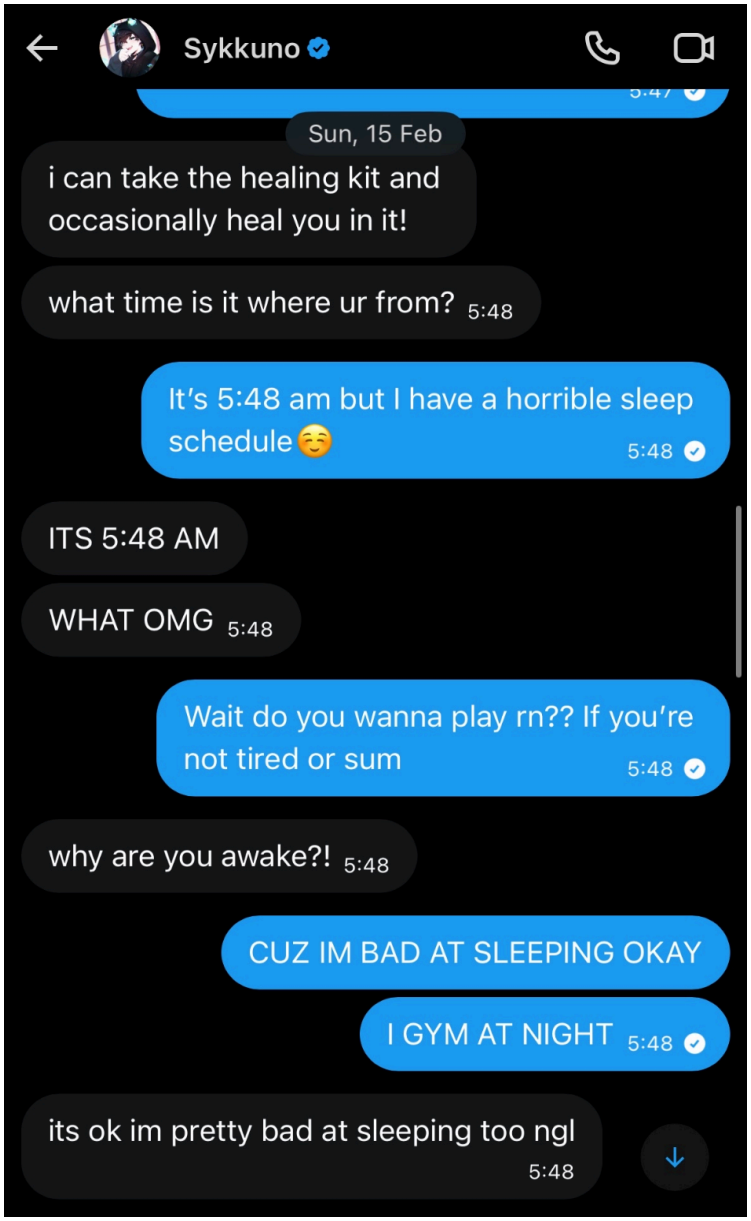
Our First Conversation

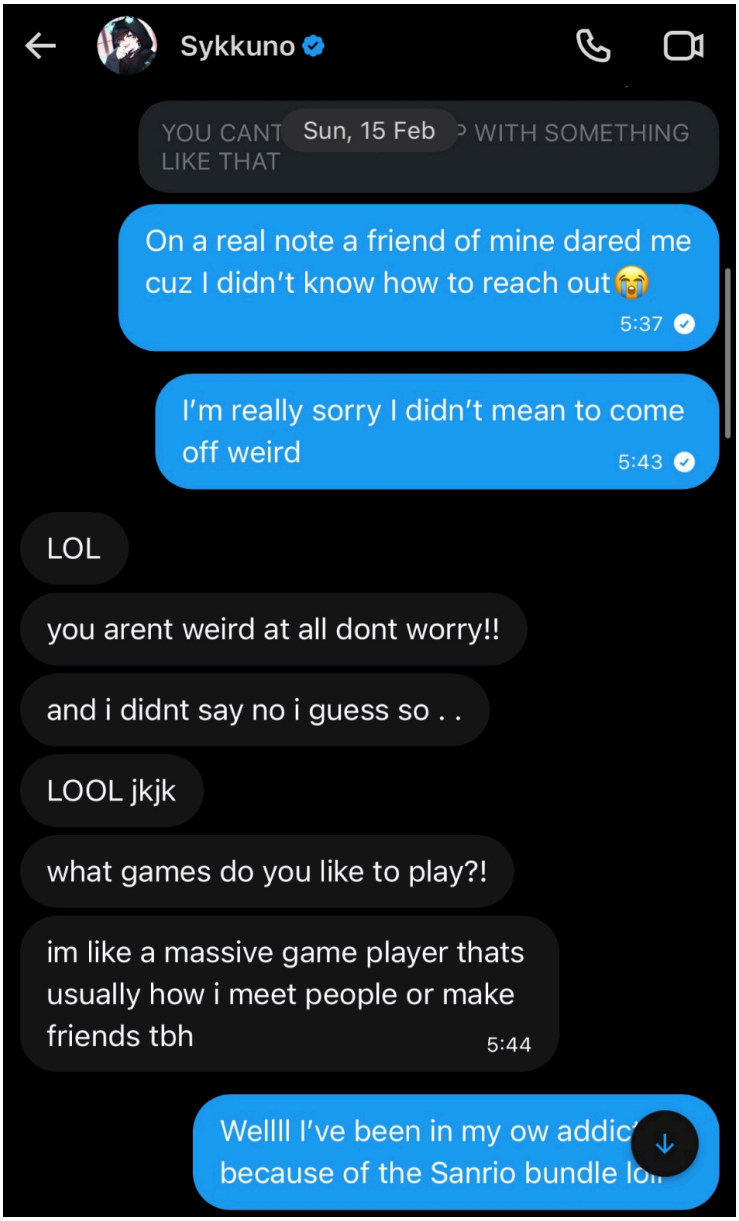
After Valentine's Day, I was so excited about him following me that I told a friend who then urged me to strike up a conversation. I finally worked up the courage to send him a dm and he replied right away.

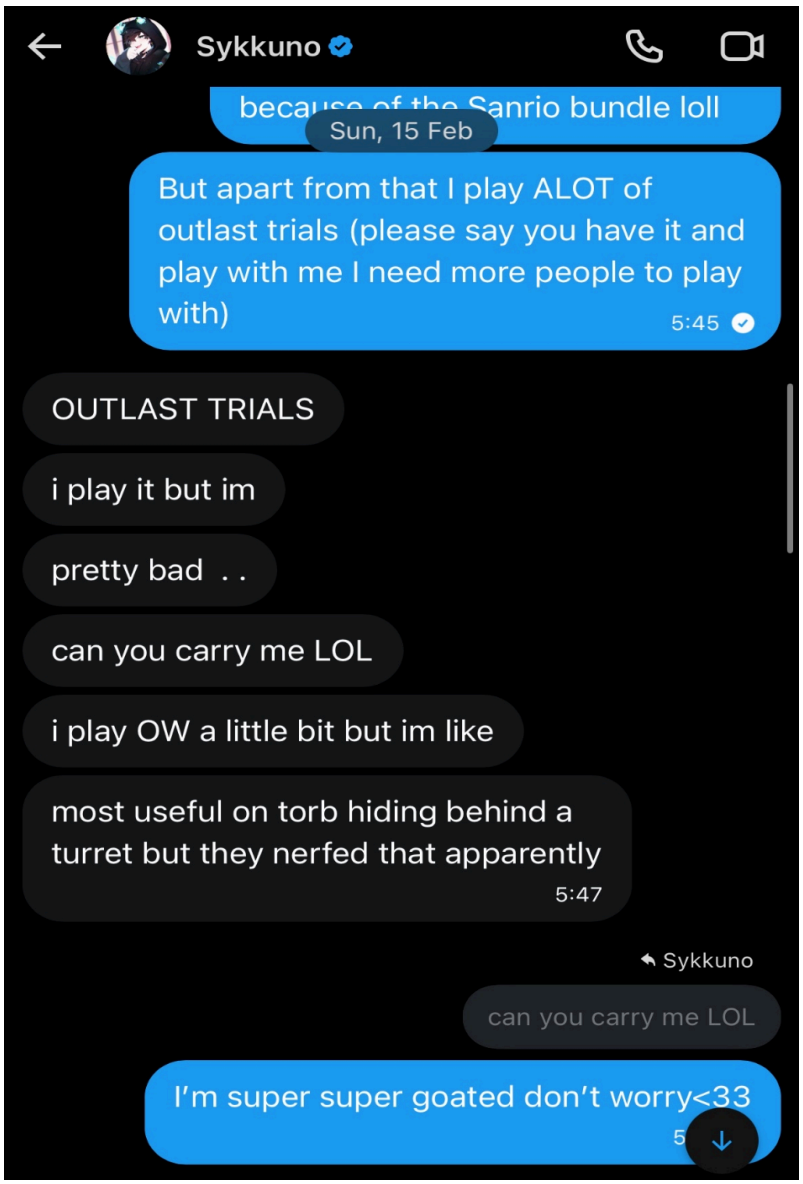


Invited Me To Play Games With Him

In the same first conversation, he brought up what kind of games he liked to play and invited me to play with him after a convention.







Sykkuno
because of the Sanrio bundle loll
Sun, 15 Feb
But apart from that I play ALOT of outlast trials (please say you have it and play with me I need more people to play with)

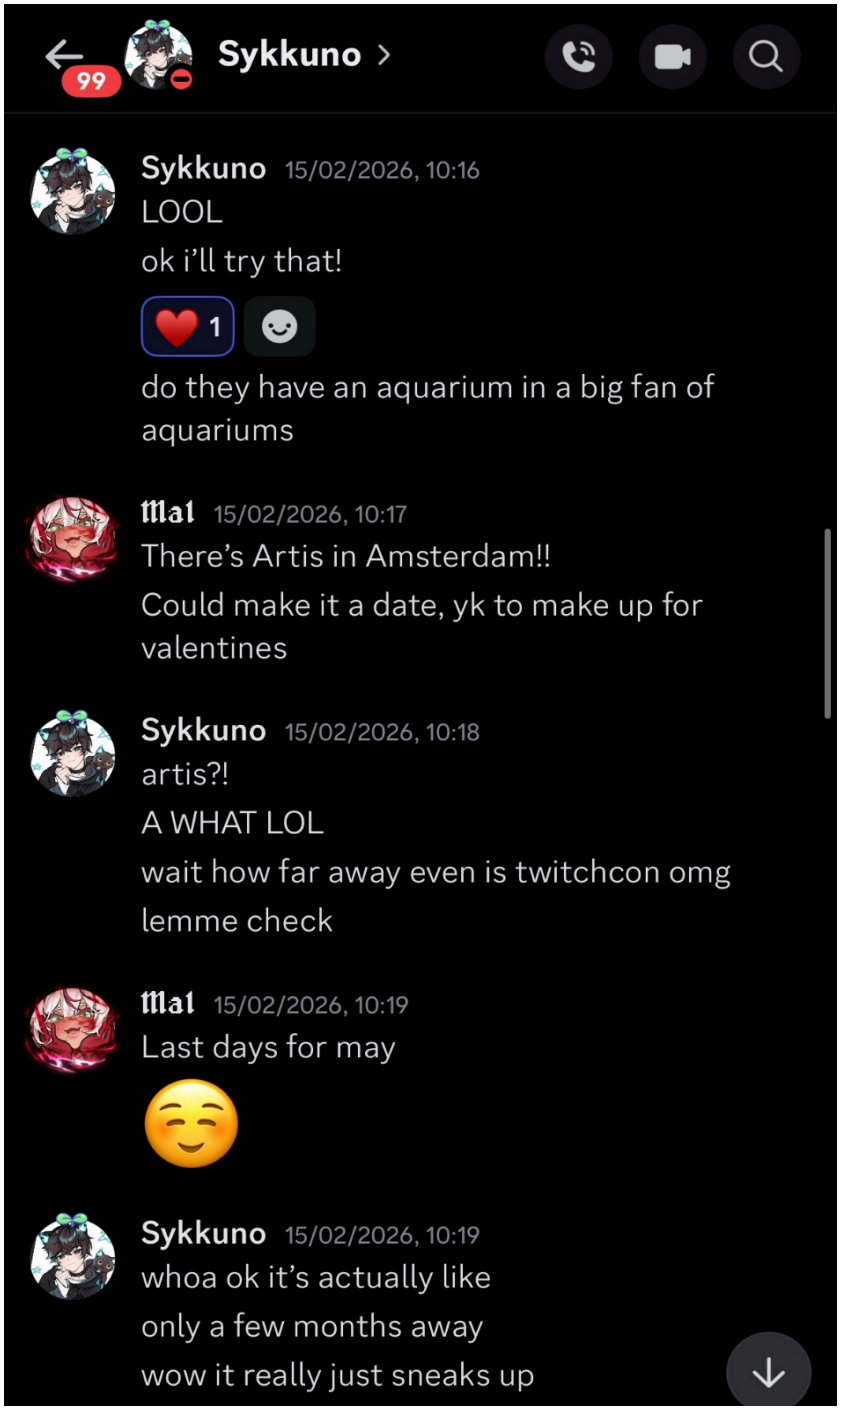
we will play extra tmr!!
and we can do outlast trials 9:11
Okii
Are you good with horror tho??
Also should I add you on dc or?? 9:11

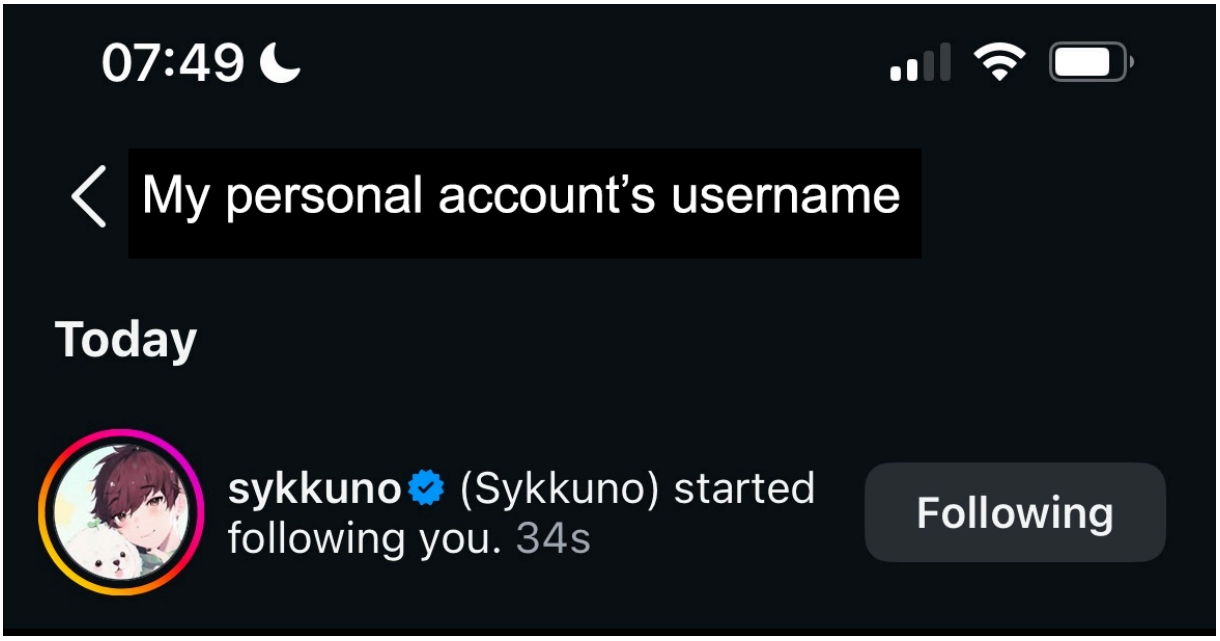
Interest In Where I Live

For context, this is still the same day as the first conversation, only moved to Discord and a few hours apart since I'm EU time zone and he's US time zone. Things started out innocently enough with him inquiring about fun things to do near where I live, such as aquariums and conventions, TwitchCon EU specifically. I'd like to point out that I said we could go on a date to make up for valentine's, he not once expressed to me any discomfort, or that he wasn't single.



Following My Private Instagram

He would also follow my personal private Instagram that is only available to my IRL friends and family, while using his official Sykkuno account.

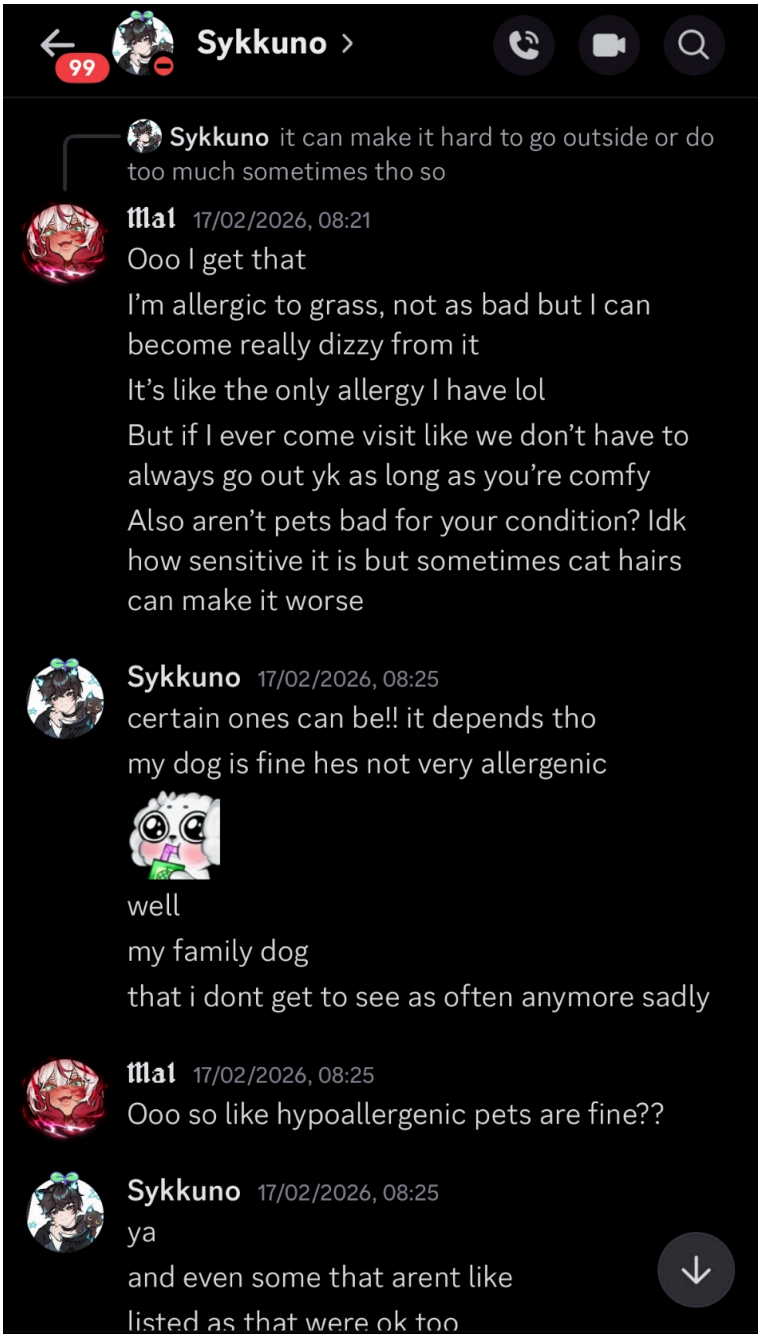


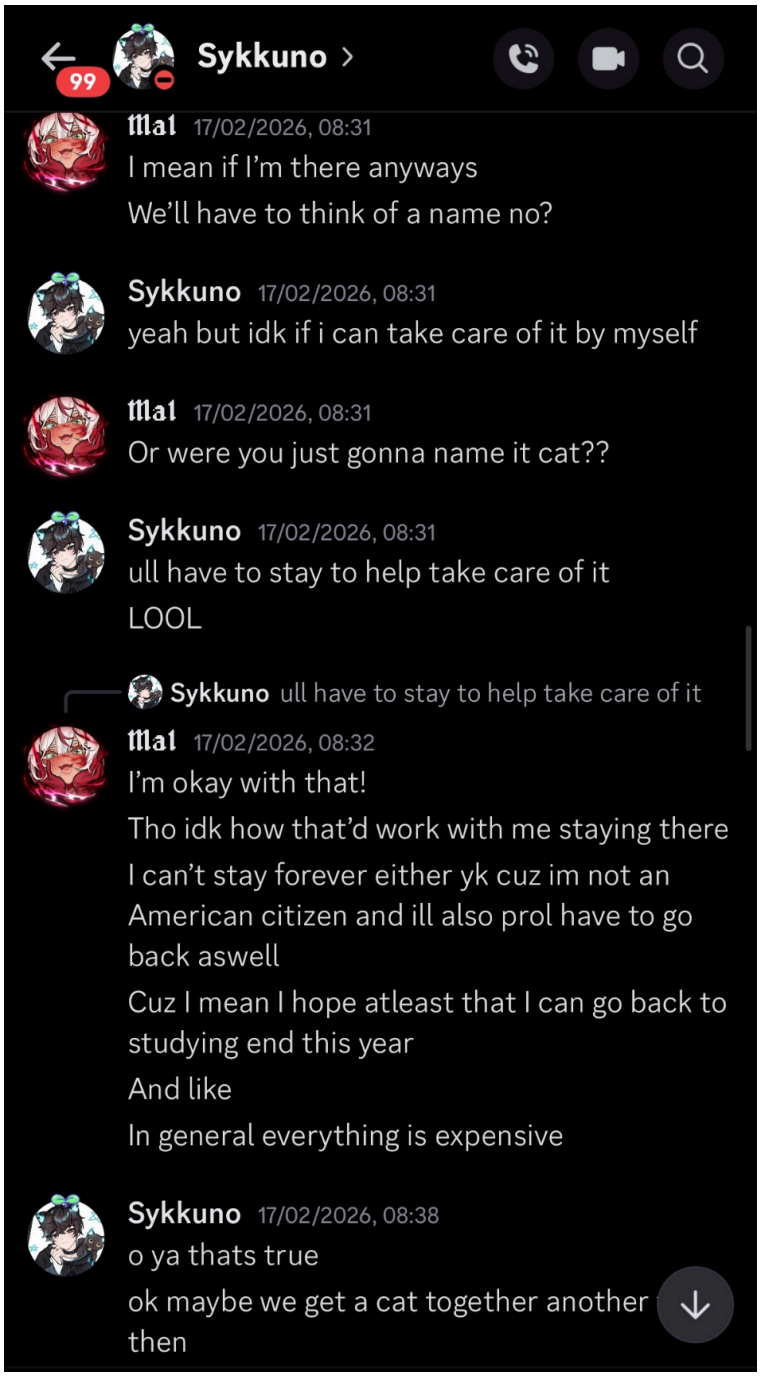
Making Plans To Meet Me In Person

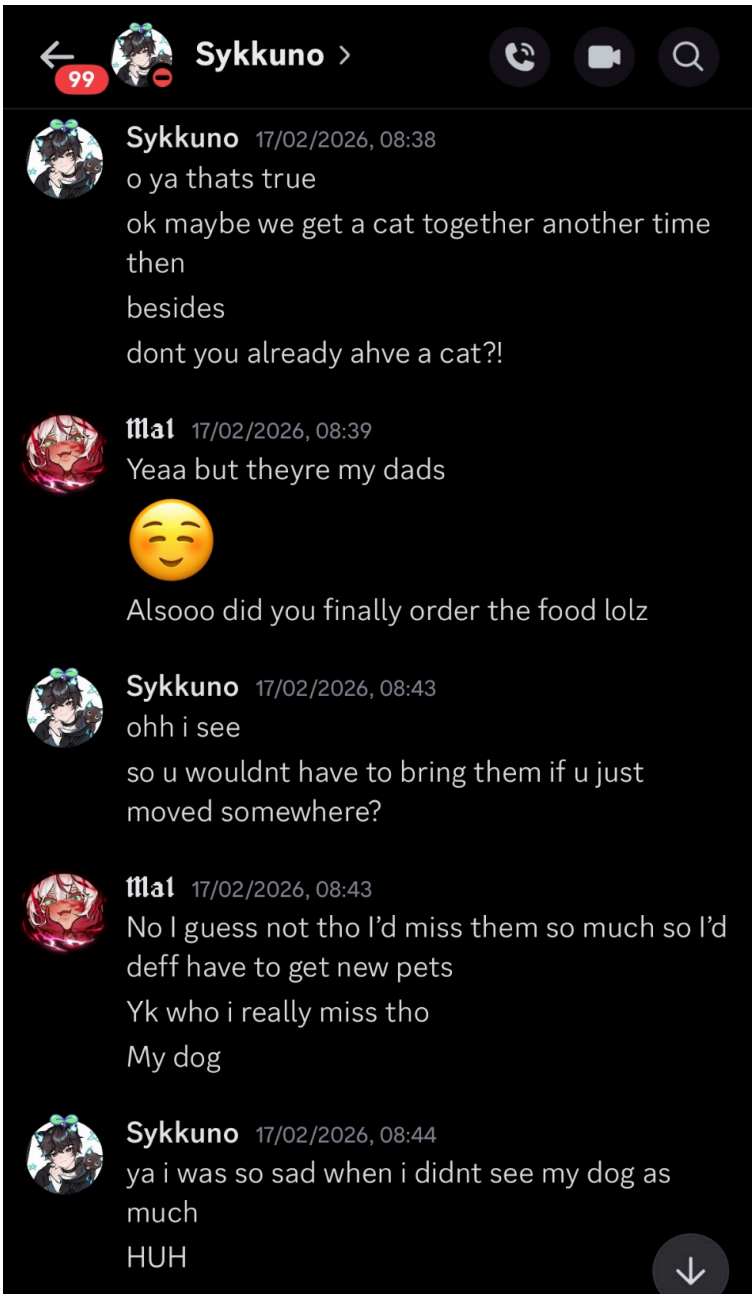
In this 2 hour Discord gaming call, the same day as our first conversation, Sykkuno made plans to meet me IRL. It was set to be the same weekend as Dokomi 2026 since he was flying over anyway to attend Twitchcon EU. Going to the aquarium would be our first date. I also learned that there is a 15 year age gap between us.

Making Plans To Move In Together

With Sykkuno, our relationship moved so incredibly fast it almost felt like a dream. It was like he could make anything I wanted happen, and as someone as prolific and successful as him, I had no reason to doubt anything he said to me. These screenshots show that Sykkuno and I were intending to adopt a cat and have me possibly move into his house. I told him we couldn't get a cat yet due to me not being a US citizen and possibly having VISA issues. Keep in mind this conversation happened 2 days after the first conversation.



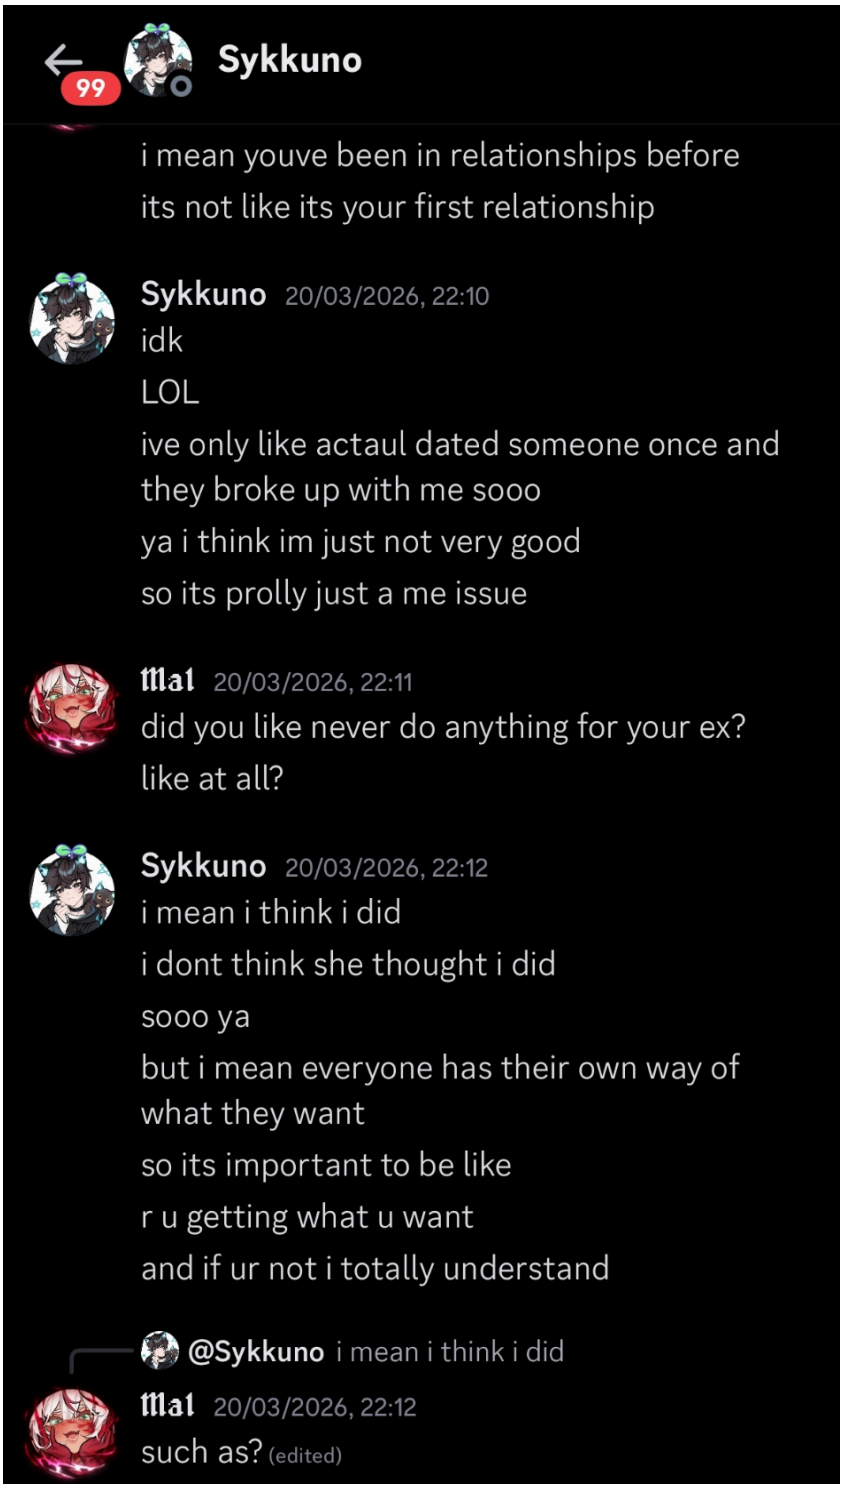




We had known each other for barely a few days, and this 34 year old man was already expressing interest in moving in together to live in the same house.

Lying About Being Single And Dating History

In this screenshot, Sykkuno said he has only ever had 1 relationship his entire life. I would eventually find out that was a lie and that he had been dating and living in the same house as his girlfriend for years and that I was not the only girl on the Internet that he spoke to on a daily basis.



Sexting

We texted every single day, and these interactions would be charged with flirting and suggestive topics. I would send him suggestive pictures and audios and he would confirm that he'd touch himself to them. Additionally, he'd always act flustered and inexperienced, keeping up the illusion of his on-stream innocent persona.

We'd also regularly talk about date ideas and things we'd like to do together in the future when we'd meet up IRL, topics that are usually discussed between 2 adults who are clearly romantically interested in each other.

On top of texting, we also called almost every day, even after he'd stream for over 8 hours. We'd talk and play games regularly. One thing I'd notice is that every time we called and when he spoke, he'd be whispering and never fully use his voice. His excuse was that it's because he was tired after a long stream, and I didn't really find that to be suspicious. Using your voice for 8 hours in a row does exhaust it after all.

I now realize that he was quiet because his girlfriend lived with him and he didn't want her to hear.

Yk I've kinda wondered if you've ever touched yourself while watching what I send you (edited)

Sykkuno 10/03/2026, 09:01
WHAT
why would you wonder that?!

Mal 10/03/2026, 09:01
Well cause they're spicy pictures and videos
Of course I wonder if you put them to use

Sykkuno 10/03/2026, 09:02
ill definitely put this one to use

Mal 10/03/2026, 09:02
So you've never done so before?

Sykkuno 10/03/2026, 09:02
MAYBE

Mal 17/03/2026, 08:59
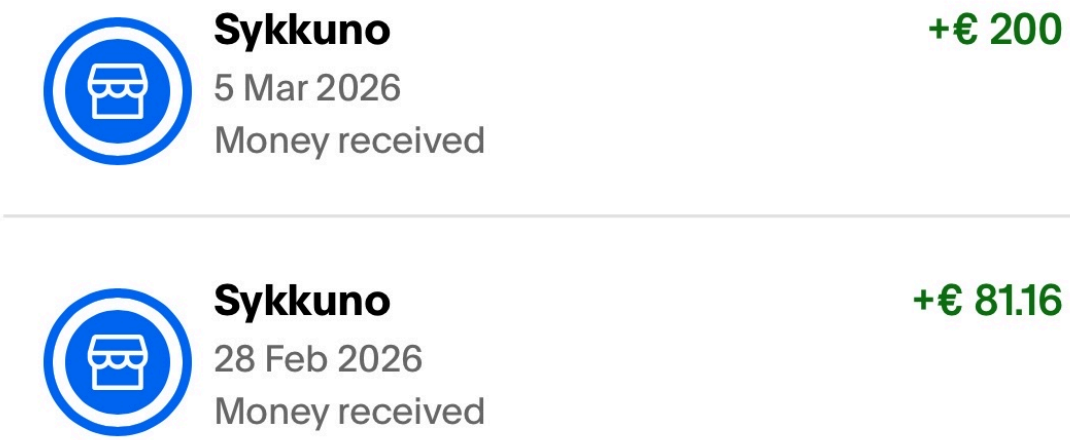
I love getting compliments from you
Also goodmorning handsome
What are you up to?

Sugar Daddy

Less than a month later, Sykkuno would randomly ask for my Paypal account in dms, he'd then waste no time in sending me money unprompted, something that I'd later realize was simply a behavioral pattern that he'd employ with women he'd express interest in. I want to reiterate that I have never asked him for his money and he did this of his own volition. He bought me both a gym jacket (linked below) and Resident Evil 9, because I had expressed interest in the game.



Sykkuno

Sykkuno 28/02/2026 13:17
EH
you still arent asleep either?!

Mal 28/02/2026 13:17
I fell asleep
Woke up again cuz I'm having trouble sleeping

Sykkuno 28/02/2026 13:19
aw
well good morning
and whats ur paypal so i can buy u games later

A Calculated Pattern of Love Bombing & Manipulation

After speaking to Elfilea a few days ago, we were able to corroborate our experiences with Sykkuno and learn that we were both victims of his. We had no idea that he was talking to both of us at the same time.

Sykkuno is known to send hundreds of dollars to the girls he wants to get involved with. This screenshot is from when he took my friend Elfilea to Paris during the 2025 TFT tournament, along with sending her 500 euros to help her move into her new apartment. You can also clearly see that this was sent from his business email's Paypal account.

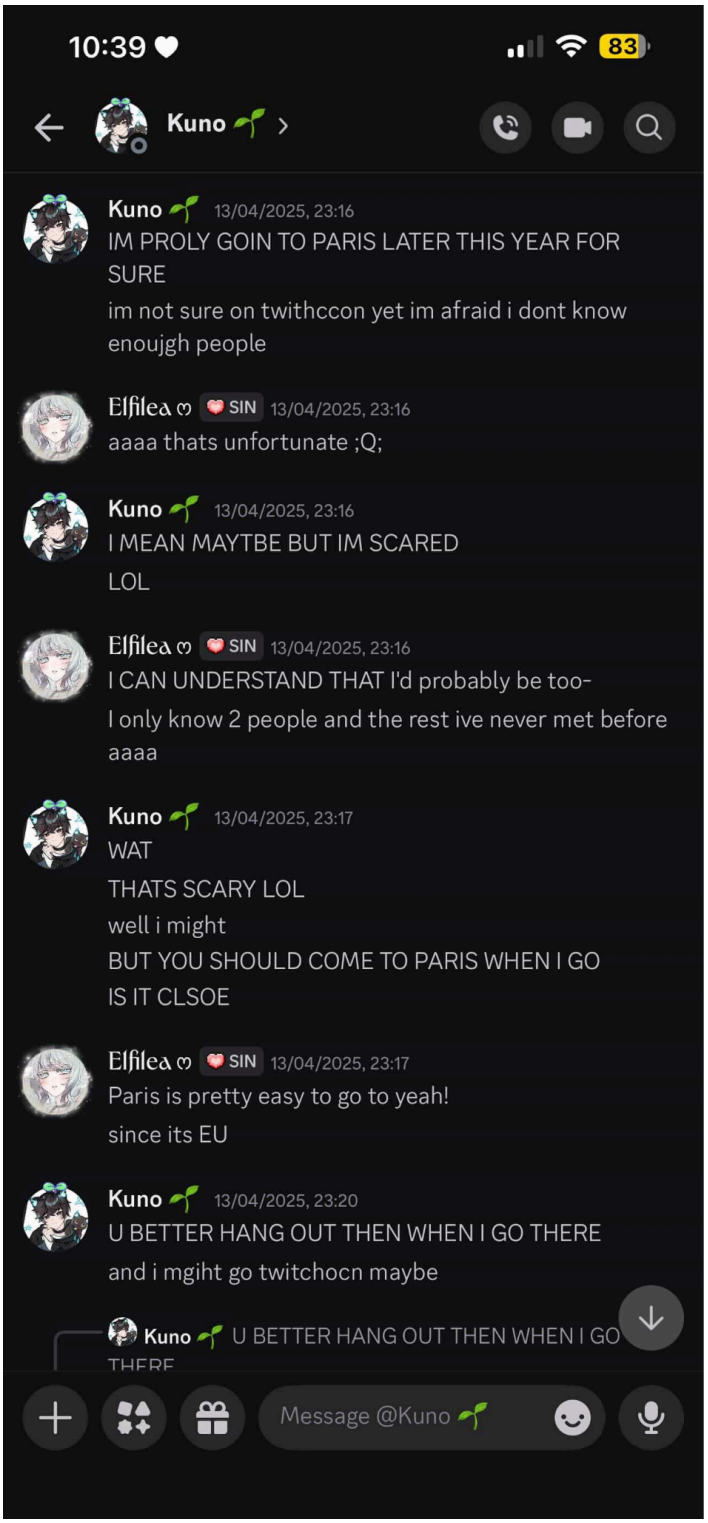
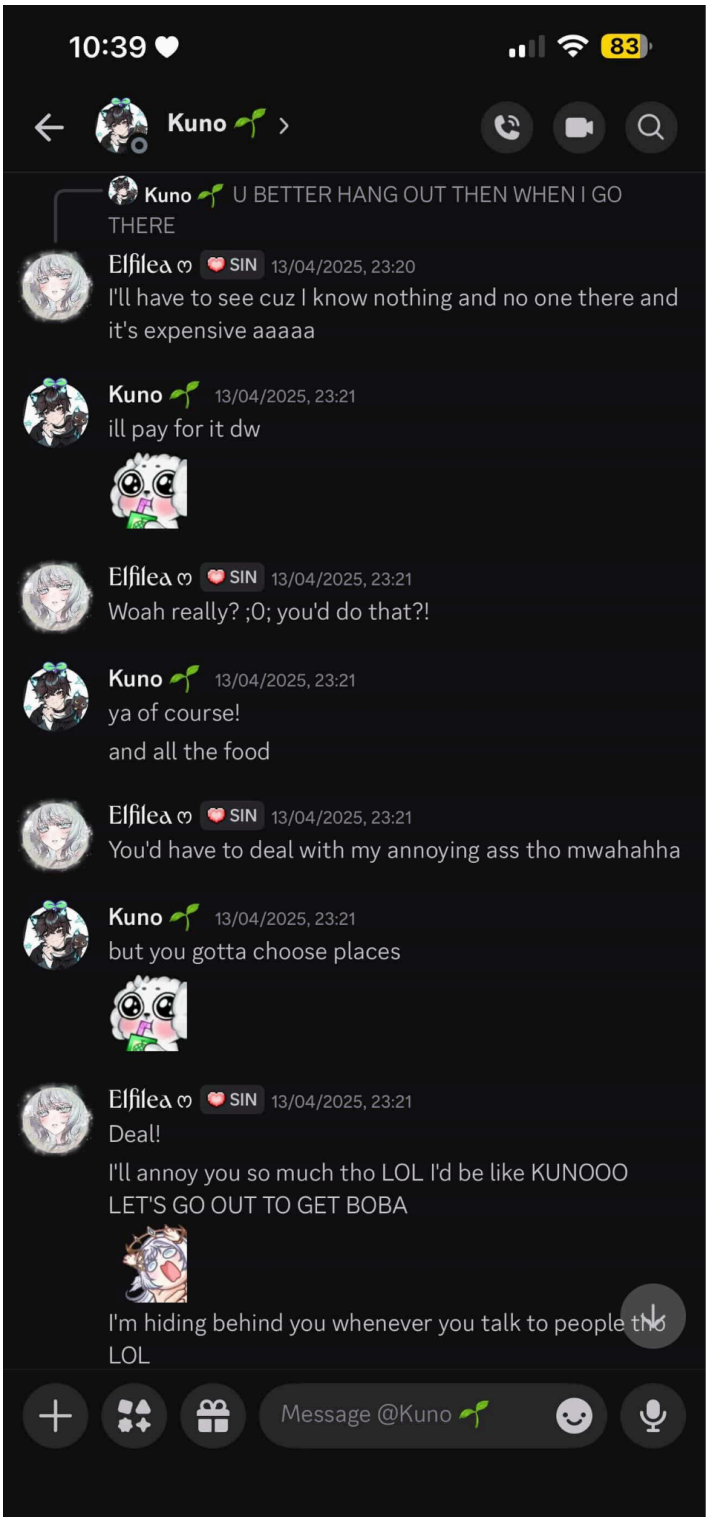
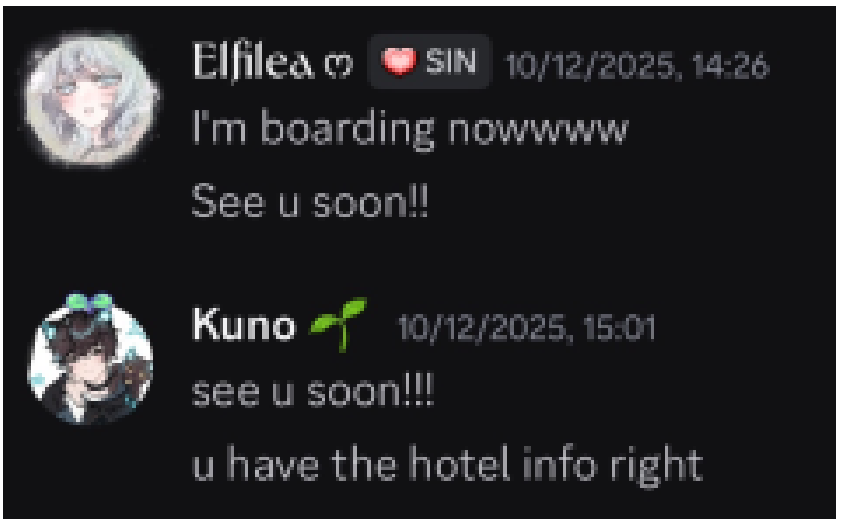
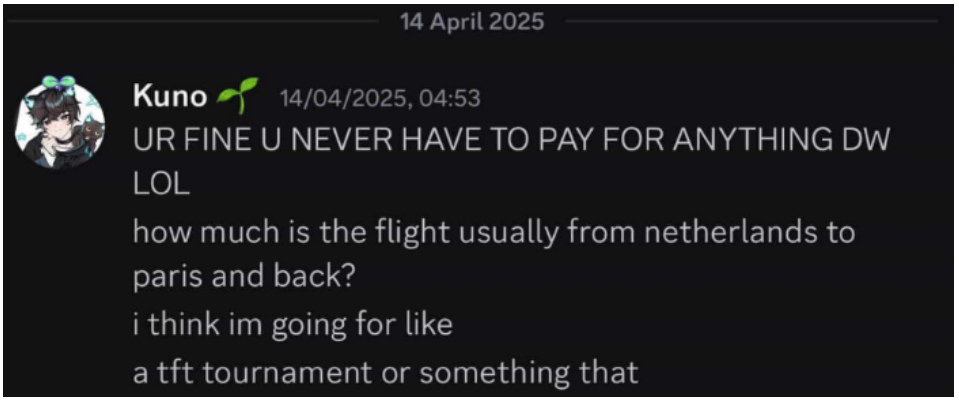
Paying For Another Girl To Fly Out to Him

Here are their dms in which we can see that he offered to pay for her flight to TFT Paris, as well as all the food and hotel fees there, pretty much taking care of her financially during the entire trip.



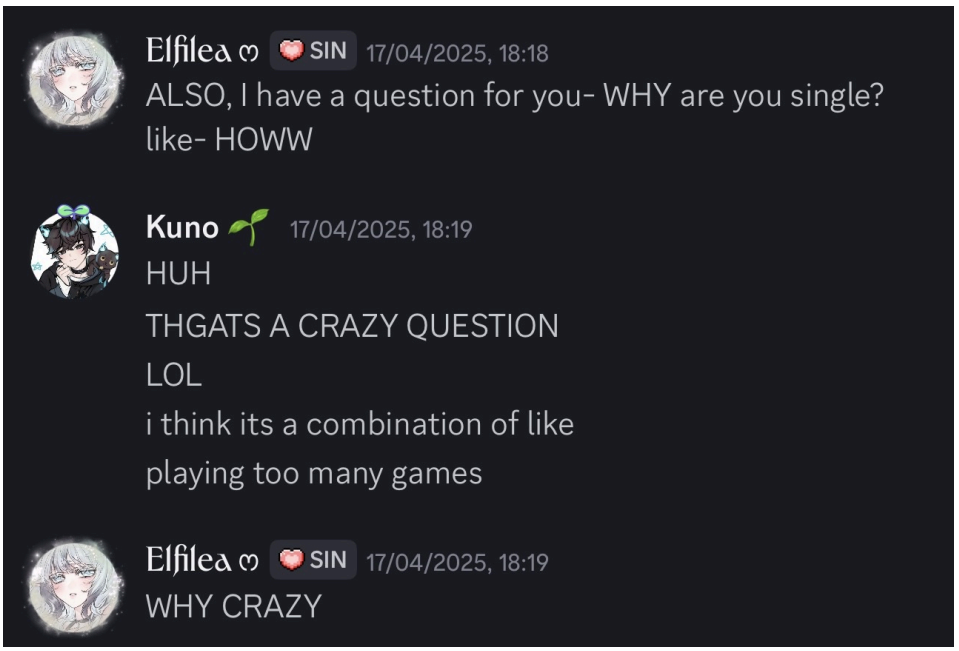






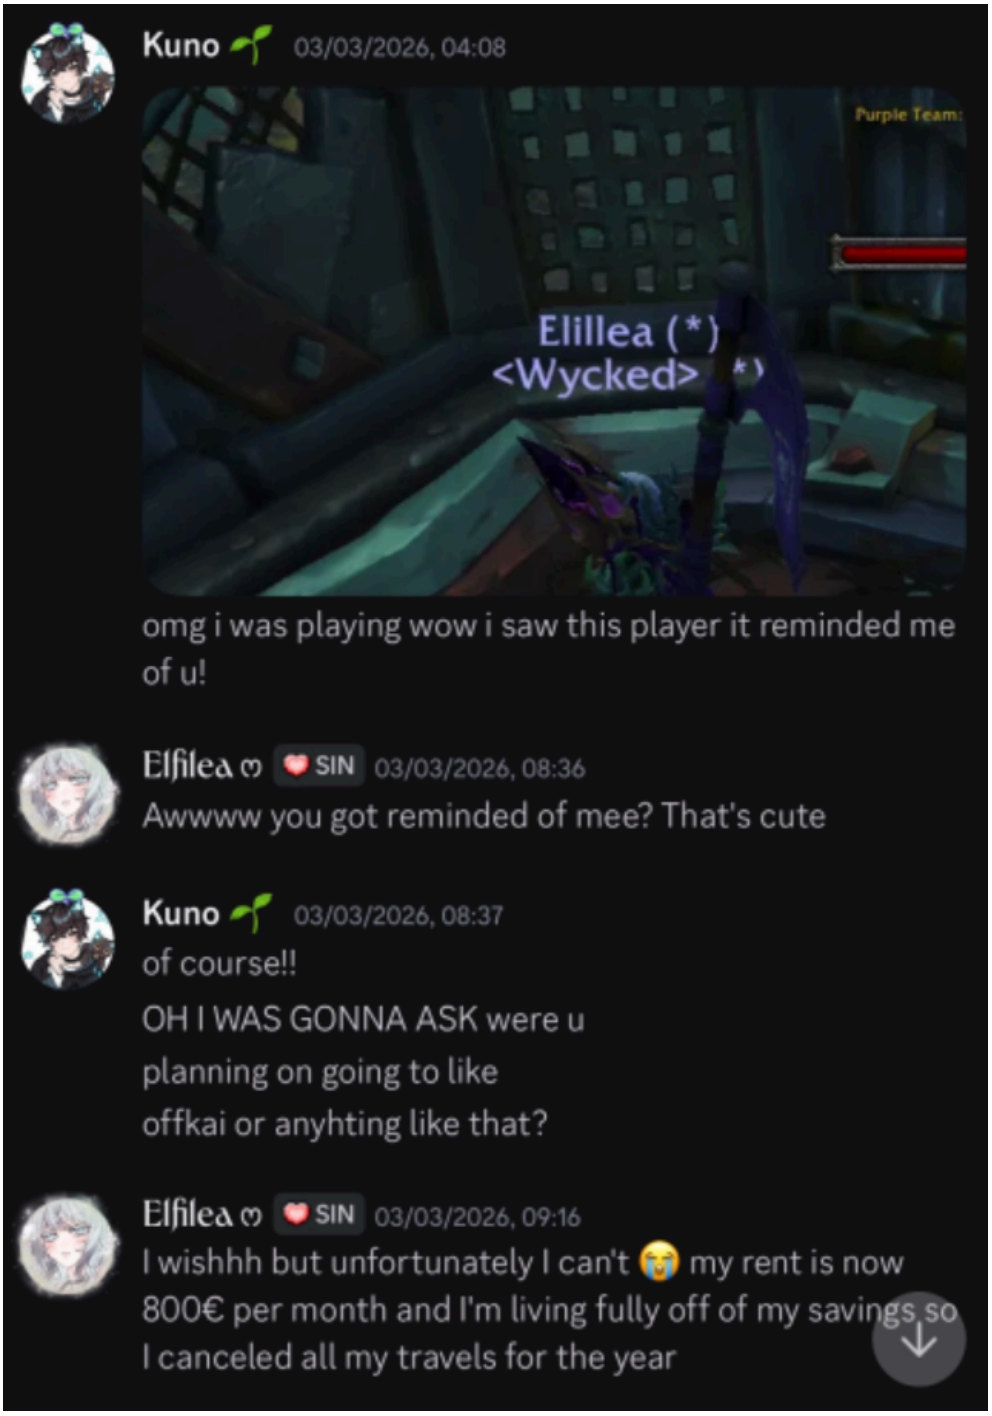
Elfilea’s Experience

Elfilea would talk to Sykkuno on and off, for the span of 5 years. During that time, she had absolutely no idea that he had a girlfriend in the 5 years that she had known him and on and off flirted with him anytime she would bring up the topic of his love life he would give the response of playing too many games and not going out enough to meet women to date.



Same calculated behavior and patterns. Using his nerdy gamer boy facade to lure women into a false narrative.

Here is proof that Sykkuno was in Paris for the TFT event around this time too, directly from his twitter:



To add even more salt to the wound, after Elfilea's Paris trip, and 2 weeks after he had started talking to me, saying things like how he wants to move in with me and such, he would message Elfilea asking her if she'll be at Offkai. This is proof that he'd be talking to more than one woman at the same time, planning a hook up for every event he went to. He was doing this while giving me the impression that he wanted something long term, and all while also having a girlfriend since 2021.
Elfilea and I weren't friends until I found out that he was cheating on his girlfriend, this is when we both got in contact with each other and shared our stories. She deserves the world.

Rumors & Broken Friendships

As I mentioned in the intro, no one made a public statement before because they never had sufficient evidence, Sykkuno would always talk about the most explicit and sensitive topics on voice calls or in person, never leaving a paper trail, this was all intentional.

Rumors still managed to spread, many content creators, both big and small, would vent to their friends about his behavior. Behind the scenes for many, he'd be known as a predator who regularly took advantage of smaller and/or vulnerable content creators.

The reason why Sykkuno would abruptly stop hanging out with certain people throughout the years is because of this predatory behavior. However, he'd manage to keep enough influential friends around him to legitimize his position in the space, especially seeing that many of those friends were women who would have normally stood in solidarity with any sort of victim, making it seem like he was safe enough to trust because they trusted him enough to be a friend.

As Elfilea spoke with Sykkuno, she'd tell him about rumors that she had heard from someone else, about how Sykkuno had a "roster" of readily available women, and how they all coincidentally were smaller content creators who wouldn't dare touch him if something went wrong.

Eliflea of course didn't believe this, after all, Sykkuno had a calculated pattern that worked perfectly in his favor, his innocent naive demeanor wouldn't dare hurt a fly, so why would he hurt me?

Sykkuno’s Girlfriend

The coincidence that would lead me to finding out the truth about Sykkuno happened last week.

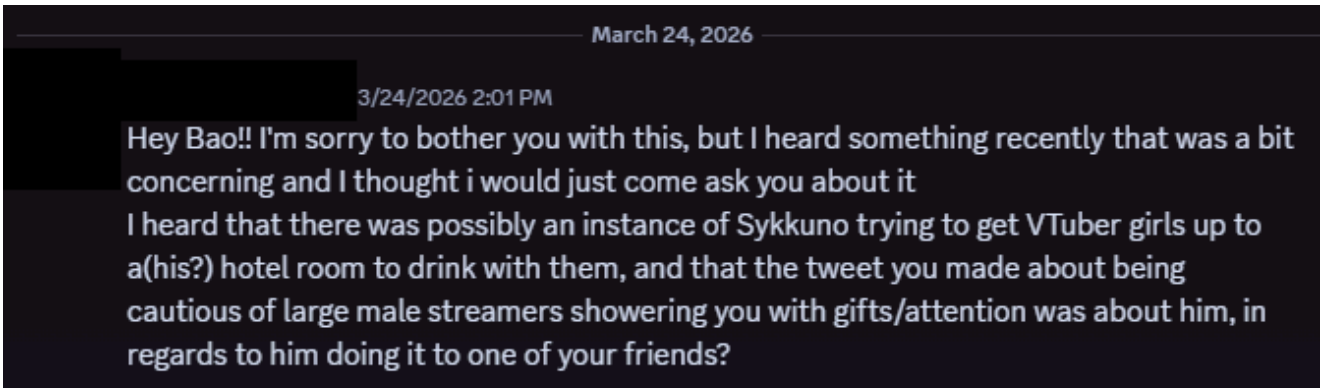
A popular male vtuber tried to slide in my dms to presumably get in my pants and when I rejected him, he immediately started to mention nasty rumors about Bao.

Out of concern for her, I reached out to a mod who then connected me with Bao. The 3 of us struck up conversation when I mentioned I was nervous about a date I was going on. They asked me who it was.

When I said my date was with Sykkuno, they immediately told me not to go on the date for my own personal safety.

Bao told me that at the end of March, Sykkuno’s girlfriend reached out to her regarding a controversial tweet Bao made last year. She asked Bao if it was true that the tweet was about Sykkuno.

They called and Bao explained to her that other women had confided in her about similar experiences with him. She described a pattern of behavior where he targeted small female content creators and pressured them into having sex with him. Bao then offered to connect her with these other victims so they could share their experiences with her directly, as she felt that it was important to hear them firsthand. This was all discussed during a discord call.



Bao told me that 3 days before I contacted her and her mod, Sykkuno and his girlfriend were trying to reconcile after Sykkuno somehow managed to convince her that it was all a huge misunderstanding.

She had no clue that I, as well as many other girls, still existed in Sykkuno’s romantic and sexual life.

Bao and her mod would put me in a group chat with Sykkuno's girlfriend where I would share all of the screenshots you see above. She was rightfully horrified and left the group chat because she couldn't stomach reading them.

To All Of Sykkuno's Victims,

Ever since Sykkuno's viral breakout during the pandemic lockdowns of 2020 when he played Among Us, he has always carefully curated every aspect of his behavior on stream and with friends.
An innocent, romantically inexperienced boyfailure who looks like an anime character and sounds like one too.

This perfectly curated image would attract a large audience of women, with a lot of them openly professing how attracted they are to him. He soaked in the praise and never sought to limit the most extreme aspects of his community, because it made him more desirable.

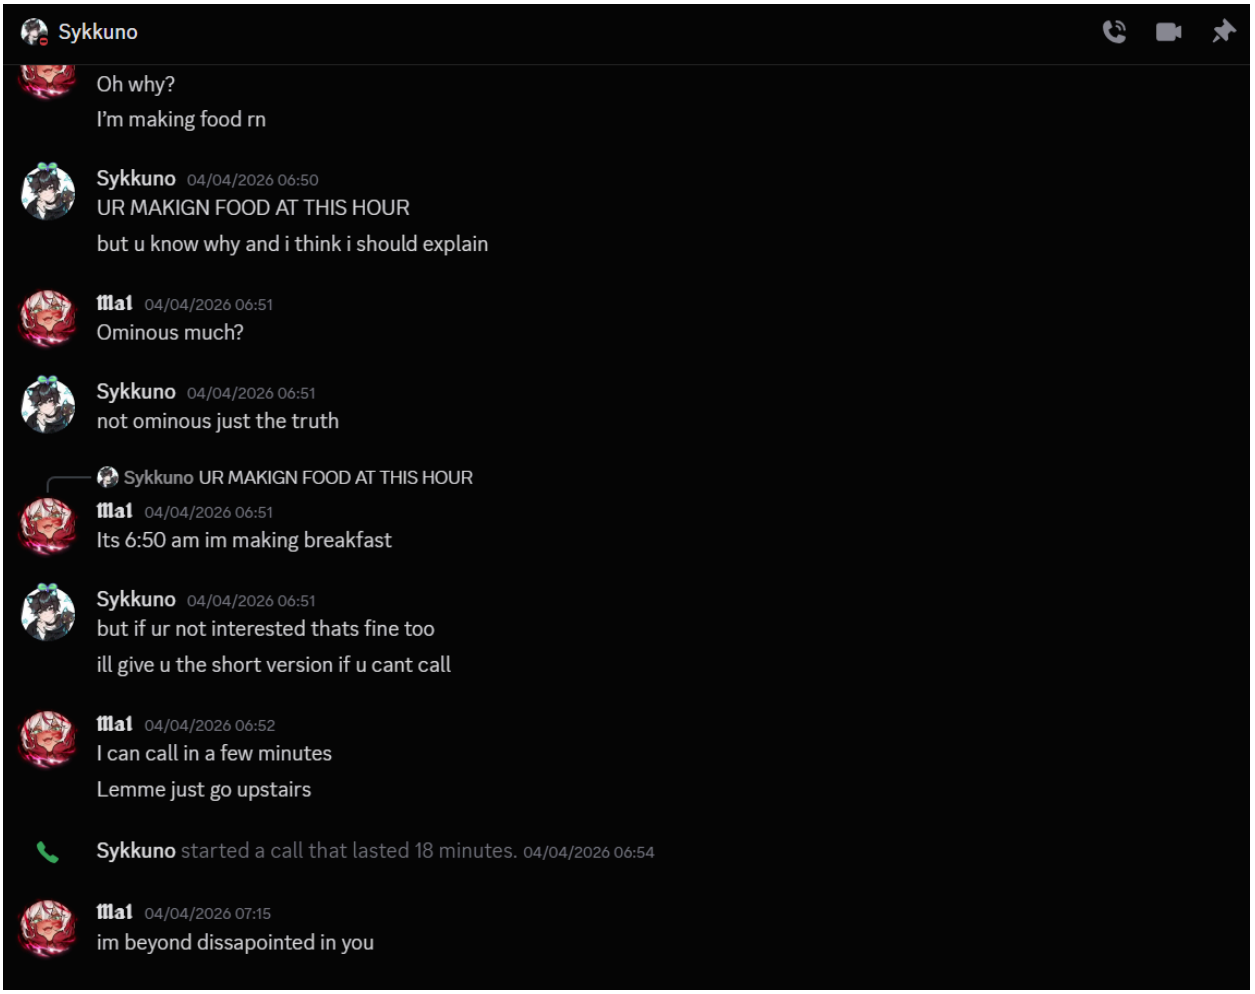
He understood this, and would use this curated image, as well as his legitimacy in the content creation space thanks to his followers and famous friends, to seek out any attractive cosplayers and/or content creators that were small enough to be starstruck by his "grand" presence, it would work most of the time as he'd use the same calculated pattern that he used with me and Elfilea to lure them in, and eventually fly them out to the next convention or event that he went to, with the goal of hooking up.

What these many women didn't know though, is that he'd always lie about the fact that he's single, that behind the scenes, he had a neglected and depressed girlfriend that he'd been with since 2021 and who has lived with him since 2024, in the same house.

I implore the many other victims to come out about their experiences with this predator, and I end this document with a recording of Sykkuno in which he admits to everything, especially with how he cheated on his girlfriend with my friend, and was intending to do that with me as well.

For context, this was shortly after I had messaged his girlfriend about his cheating. 30 minutes later, he would ask if I was free for a call.

As his girlfriend was crying downstairs, he somehow chose to prioritize someone that he barely met 2 months ago. I also pointed this out during the call.

Here's the link: https://youtu.be/PrtZjnUxKZ0


This was the last thing I said to him:
